

M.H.P. Dec. 13, 1904.
 m. a. n. 30/XI/20

CONTENTS.

	Page
ART. I.—Wesleyan Methodism in England and America not chargeable with Schism in separating from the English Establishment. By Rev. Charles Elliott, A. M., (continued from page 390, vol. viii.)	1
II.—Review of the Proceedings of the late General Conference, held in Cincinnati, O., May 1, 1836,	32
III.—Sketches of South America. By Rev. J. Dempster, A. M., Missionary at Buenos Ayres,	55
IV.—The Progress and final Triumph of the Gospel. By S. W. Coggeshall, of the New-England conference,	65
V.—Observations on Watson's Theological Institutes, No. II., (continued from the July No.,)	80
VI.—Extract from the Twenty-first Report of the American Bible Society,	89
VII.—Religious Education of Children: A Sermon delivered before the Oneida Annual Conference, Sept. 3, 1837. By Elias Bowen,	91
VIII.—The Existence and Fall of Satan and his Angels. By J. H. Young, of the Baltimore annual conference,	100
IX.—Twelve Lectures on the Connection between Science and Revealed Religion. Delivered in Rome. By Nicholas Wiseman, D. D., Principal of the English College, and Professor in the University of Rome. Andover. Gould & Newman. 1837. 8vo., pp. 404,	117
X.—Paris and the French. By Rev. Abel Stevens, of the New-England conference,	121
XI.—Demonstration of the Being of a God, from a single law in the Phenomena of the Solar System. By Gershom F. Cox, of Portland,	134
XII.—Moral Education,	143
XIII.—Plenary Inspiration. By Rev. Jefferson Hascall,	156
XIV.—The Judgment Register. By the Rev. James Floy, of the New-York conference,	166
XV.—The Witnessing Church: A Sermon delivered in the Great Queen-street Chapel, London. By the Rev. John Harris, author of "Mammon," &c.,	176
XVI.—Walking by Faith. By the Rev. R. W. Allen, of the New-England conference,	198
XVII.—A Brief View of the Causes of the Existing Prejudices against Classical Learning. By Charles H. Lyon,	209
XVIII.—Sketches of Methodism: its Rise and Progress on Montgomery Circuit, Baltimore Conference. By Rev. J. H. Young,	216
XIX.—Review of the Life and Times of George Whitefield, From the Wesleyan Methodist Magazine,	227
XX.—Notices of Books,	239

ART. XXI.—Paris and the French. By Rev. Abel Stevens, of the New-England conference, (continued from page 134,) .	241
XXII.—Sketches of South America. By Rev. J. Dempster, A. M., Missionary at Buenos Ayres, (continued from p. 65.) .	254
XXIII.—A Review of the Rise and Progress of American Methodism. By S. W. Coggeshall, of the New-England conf., .	265
XXIV.—Chronology of Methodism,	285
XXV.—Considerations in favor of the Study of the Ancient Classics. By Charles H. Lyon,	295
XXVI.—Calm Review of the Article on the "Existence and Fall of Satan," &c. By Rev. S. Comfort,	303
XXVII.—Extemporaneous Speaking: An Address to the Lyceum of the Oneida Conference Seminary. By Prof. N. Rounds .	309
XXVIII.—Prophecies concerning Ishmael,	316
XXIX.—Mr. Wesley's Conversion,	321
XXX.—Jesus Christ very God and very Man: An Essay. By Rev. Ebenezer Washburn,	335
XXXI.—Man saved through Human Instrumentality: An Essay, .	341
XXXII.—Graphics,	345
XXXIII.—The Acropolis and the Parthenon,	351
XXXIV.—Lectures on the Inspiration of the Scriptures. By Leonard Woods, D. D.,	356
XXXV.—The Hawaiian Spectator,	357
XXXVI.—Miscellaneous Publications,	358
XXXVII.—Sketches of South America. By Rev. J. Dempster, A. M., Missionary at Buenos Ayres,	361
XXXVIII.—On Pastoral Visiting,	370
XXXIX.—Payson's Life and Writings,	382
XL.—Tyler on Oaths,	394
XLI.—On the Modesty becoming a Christian Minister. By Rev. Daniel Dana, D. D.,	418
XLII.—An Address before the Cuvierian Society of the Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., July 31, 1838. By Wm. H. Allen, A. M., Professor of Chemistry and Experimental Philosophy, in Dickinson College,	429
XLIII.—Treasures of Knowledge laid open by an acquaintance with the Ancient Classics. By Charles H. Lyon, Associate Principal of the Irving Institute, Tarrytown, N. Y., .	443
XLIV.—Dr. Fisk's Travels. Travels on the Continent of Europe, &c. By Wilbur Fisk, D. D. New-York. Harper & Brothers. 8vo., pp. 688. 1838,	449
XLV.—Defence of the Existence and Fall of Satan and his Angels. By J. H. Young,	464
XLVI.—System of Education in Prussia,	467
XLVII.—Critical Notices,	471
XLVIII.—Miscellaneous,	475